

Press Release: Spencer Jones announces new single "Warrior" after The Voice!

Spencer Jones exploded onto our TV screens last year and into the hearts and minds of millions of Australians during the 6th season of The Voice, where he defied popular belief by making it to the semi finals, making him the most successful rock musician in the history of The Voice Australia.

Spencer lived up to his "Rock God" status and showed us just how much fight was in his heart during live show #2 with a performance that catapulted him out of the bottom two against Bojesse Pigram. The audience was heard gasping at the announcement of his song choice and waited with bated breath for him to either deliver or crash and burn. And deliver he did! Spencer's touching and incredibly raspy rendition of Adele's Skyfall has been hailed as one of the best performances of The Voice globally. His coach, Kelly Rowland exclaimed how exciting he is to work with and Spencer proved himself to be a seasoned and stunning live performer every time he took the stage.

MUSIC –

His brand new single, Warrior, was written and produced with Supernova Sound's Ash Maklad (Shannon Noll, Wendy Matthews) with Dave Molland (Expatriate) directing and filming the music video.
